NOTE: To help ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all guests, trained security canines and their handlers will be present during the Opening Reception. You may see the canines at the main entrance security checkpoint, and outside the venues as they assist with Live Nation’s security measures. Please do not pet the dogs.

Liquor License Restrictions:

While all three venues are Live Nation venues, they have three separate liquor licenses. This means that alcoholic drinks must stay on the property where you order them. So, if you’re in Punch Line, your drink cannot leave the building. The same goes for The Fillmore. Brooklyn Bowl’s liquor license has been extended to the street. So, if you get a drink on the block or inside Brooklyn Bowl, you’re good to go in and out! Just know that we may ask you to finish your drink before moving on to the next venue.
